CONUL Teaching and Learning Annual Seminar

Long Room Hub, Trinity College Dublin

June 10th 2014

Programme

10.00-10.30: Registration, Trinity Long Room Hub entrance lobby

Tea/Coffee, Neill/Hoey Lecture Theatre, Level 2, Trinity Long Room Hub

10.30-10.45: Welcome and Introductions

10.45-11.30: What do librarians really think about? - Radical tradition in a time of change: Chris Pressler DCU

11.30-11.45: LILAC 2014 – Some Highlights and Key Themes: Liz Dore UL & Ronan Madden UCC

11.45-12.15: Pecha Kucha 1
Integrating the Library and I.T. Helpdesks at NUI Galway: Evelyn Bohan
Gathering Meaningful Statistics: Using KnowAll Enquire in NUIM: Laura Connaughton
From bean counting to becoming master builders: collecting statistics in UCD: Lorna Dodd
Academic Writing Centre Online at NUIG: Teaching Academic Writing through Peer-Reviewing: Dr. Irina Ruppo-Malone

12.15-12.30: How the Library impacted on my studies: a student perspective: Ruth O Hara NUIM

12.30-12.50: Why evaluating research is now more important than conducting research: Mary Antonesa NUIM

12.50-13.00: Thoughts on the morning

13.00-14.00 SANDWICH LUNCH PROVIDED

14.00-14.15 Pecha Kucha 2
UCC First Year Student Experience: where is the Library? Anita Wilcox
Beyond the Library: Professional Use of Social Media for Nursing & Midwifery Undergraduates in TCD: Jessica Eustace Cooke

14.15-15.00: Improving national and institutional policies and systems for upholding academic integrity. Irene Glendinning, Academic Manager for Student Experience, Faculty of Engineering and Computing, Coventry University

15.00-15.20 Pecha Kucha 3
Bradaíl Seachain í thar aon rud eile: Jenny Collery UCD
The Move to Grangegorman: new opportunities for teaching and learning: Catherine Cooke DIT
*D*eveloping an online information literacy tutorial for off campus business undergraduates:* Jack Hyland DCU

15.30 Final thoughts and Close